

Preaching for Beginners

Welcome to Preaching for Beginners – Day 3

Gerald is still in the thick of sermon preparation.

He has done some great work on his Bible text, knows his Central Truth and is clear about his purpose for this Sermon. After formulating an outline he has started carefully crafting the body of the sermon – clearing stating the point (and locating it), thinking through how he might simply explain the point and he has come up with great ideas to help illustrate each point – now to apply the point. This is exciting. He can see that the sermon is taking shape and it won't be long before he can get into the Introduction and Conclusion.

Today, we are going to be thinking about Applications, Introductions, Conclusions and then Presentation.
